DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

2. Claims are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Zettl et al (Sharpened Nanotubes, Nanobearings, and Nanosprings) for the same reasons set forth in the last office action and further discussed below.

The merit of the rejection is the same as set forth in the last office action. However, the rejection under section 102(b) is hereby withdrawn and replaced with 102(a) as the publication date of the reference is March 2000 which is within one year of the priority date of the present application which is July 2000.

The only argument made by applicants is that the year of the document does not qualify of a 102(b) rejection, which rejection is deemed moot in view of the 102(a) rejection as set forth above.* Besides the technical argument (i.e. the publication date), applicants have made no arguments as to the Examiner's reasoning in her rejection based on the Zettl; therefore, it is assumed that applicants agree with the substance of the Examiner rejection.

3. Other references are cited as art of interest.

* Applicants are silent as to the publication date of this document in their argument although they appear to have possessed this information as the authors of the document are also applicants of the present application. Applicants are reminded that they are REQUIRED to provide any relevant information that they have including the publication date of the reference.
